SPECIALISTS IN SEATING

AND SEATING ONLY

FOR OVER 30 YEARS

Harter specialists have been designing, building and fitting fine seating since 1927. This experience, combined with only the finest materials — and more of them — assure you and your clients of the most desirable seating made today. But "specialists" and "experience" are only words. Let's see what they mean to you.

In styling

Harter seating, led by the new Criterion, and recently introduced Tempo gives you the contemporary styling your clients prefer. The cantilever arm is unique in the Criterion line but typical of the advanced features that you'll find in the entire Harter line.

In quality

Harter seating has always had a "quality" reputation. The reason is simple. More thought is given to what goes into Harter seating and how it is crafted. Take the use of foam rubber. Harter uses all foam rubber where others use a thin piece of foam rubber over a flat spring. Another example: Harter upholstery. The Tempo series has hardwood arms. Harter craftsmen cover them with generous molded sections of foam rubber. Then they affix heavy pieces of felt to the sides. The result — a superb example of fine furniture with the feel of luxury — Harter luxury.

Harter quality isn't always tangible. Sturdy quietness is a composite of many features. One is Harter's original one-piece base: strongest made. Quiet working steel parts have no peer.

In comfort

When you have Harter seating you have the one brand that does not confuse comfort with "softness". Each part of the chair's anatomy truly relates to human anatomy for all-day freshness.

Harter controls bring you closer to perfect comfort, too. The seating adjusts to you — you don't have to adjust to the seating.

When you're concerned with furniture from the budget-class to the finest — and seating in particular — speak to a Harter "seating specialist". He will be glad to acquaint you with all the details. Just a wire — or a 'phone call — and a Harter "specialist" will be at your service. He'll consider the visit a privilege.

NOTE: Harter seating is available in a vast variety of colors and upholsteries. Naugahyde and Nygen Tolex in plastics; Gros Point, Striata and Mansfield in fabrics; and luxurious leathers. All can be used in almost unlimited color combinations. Durable baked-on enamels in matching colors will also meet the varied preferences of your clients.
